

March 4, 2009

Thank you Dr. Beart. You have given me my life back!

I had surgery for colorectal cancer four months ago. The temporary colostomy bag was removed two months ago. I am now taking daily hikes, lifting weights, bicycling, swimming, going out to social events, and returning to work again.

I'm staying focused on good health. Every day, life gets better.

Alexia Parks